

Natureland Zoo Manager

Check out our website, and see information about Natureland: www.Natureland.nz

Natureland is a small zoo operated by the Natureland Wildlife Trust, not-for-profit conservation charity.

We are searching for a Manager to come in and join our small team to co-ordinate, lead, develop and motivate staff in the provision of offering great visitor experiences for those who visit the zoo. We have created this new role which is pivotal to the day to day success of Natureland.

The role includes the management of schedules and accounts. A key deliverable is to work with events, programmes and displays. The successful applicant will work closely with our fundraiser, and create events to build awareness, value and most importantly, increase sales and revenue. You are well supported by an excellent team of highly motivated Zoo keepers and business minded Trust Board members.

To be successful in this role you will bring the following skills and experience:

- Demonstrated experience or potential to co-ordinate, lead, develop, and motivate staff
- Supervision and team building skills
- The ability to create visitor experience based on positive engagement
- Sales and revenue generating skills
- Understanding and commitment to conservation and conservation leadership
- Highly developed interpersonal and communication skills, including the ability to deal with the news media
- Ability to adapt to changing operating environments with appropriate management and organisational skills

Please apply directly on the attached link or by calling Glenn Turner on +64 (0)21 22 88 218.

You must have the right to work in NZ to apply for the role.
