

Melbourne Zoo Veterinarian

- Based at Melbourne Zoo, Parkville
- Full time fixed term position (20/08/18 to 15/03/19)
- Salary range from $102,884 to $115,369 plus super (includes 1 in 3 weekend loading) dependent on experience.

Zoos Victoria operates three world-class zoos, Healesville Sanctuary, Melbourne Zoo and Werribee Open Range Zoo. Zoos Victoria is committed to fighting extinction, working locally and globally to deliver tangible conservation outcomes. Our vision is to be the world's leading zoo-based conservation organisation.

We currently have a fixed term position available for a clinical veterinarian based at Melbourne Zoo. The successful applicant will have a high degree of competency in the clinical aspects of veterinary medicine, with significant experience in zoo/wildlife practice. As a member of Zoos Victoria's veterinary team, the successful applicant will join a team of full-time and part-time veterinarians supported by veterinary nurses.

The position requires good oral and written communication skills. The ability to work well with people, function within a team approach to practice and to work under a diverse range of conditions is essential. In addition to clinical duties, the position will involve input into and active participation in the development and expansion of preventative medicine programs, gross pathology services, wildlife disease projects, nutrition and clinical research projects.
