

Sea World Sea Jelly Supervisor

- Job no: 493117
- Work type: Full time

About the role:

The primary role of the Sea Jelly Supervisor is to ensure welfare and animal husbandry standards are maintained for the Sea Jelly collection, and to also ensure all exhibits are presented at the highest possible standards. They will supervise the sea jelly staff to ensure that the appropriate level of care, enrichment and husbandry is provided.

Duties:

- Instigate and perform operational processes and procedures for the Sea Jelly exhibit and train staff in these processes.
- Instigate health and safety procedures and write risk assessments for the tasks to be undertaken by staff in the Sea Jelly exhibit.
- Purchase to budgetary requirements all required equipment and consumables.
- Ensure quality and presentation of all exhibits.
- Liaise with Veterinarian and Curator of Fishes in regards to animal health and welfare.
- Purchase, store, maintain and ensure correct use of all relevant food/equipment/items for the relevant animal collection.

Skills and Experience:

- Demonstrated experience in aquarium management.
- Tertiary qualification or zoo keeping certificate.
- Excellent communication skills, both verbal & written.
- Organisation skills.
- Ability to manage budgets.
- Ability to supervise staff.

Benefits:

- Unlimited free entry to our theme parks
- Food and beverage and retail discounts
- Unique team member events
- Opportunity for professional development

For more information or to apply online, go to;
<http://careers.villageroadshow.com.au/vrl/en/job/493117/sea-jelly-supervisor>

Applications close: 10th December 2017.